

For Immediate Release
March 5, 2004

Contact: Howard Cooperman
215.862.5272

AND THE WINNER IS...
Howard Gallery of Fine Art
Selects the Winner of their Grand Opening Prize

New Hope, PA — The highlight at the grand opening of Howard Gallery of Fine Art on Saturday, February 25, 2006 was a drawing for Dot Bunn's Oil Painting "New Hope Lambertville Bridge." And the winner is...Leslie Crilley of New Hope Pa.

Bucks County artist, Dot Bunn is best known for her countryside scenes. Ms. Bunn's award-winning works have been shown extensively in juried exhibitions in New York, New Jersey and PA, including the Tincum Arts Festival, in which her American Soybeans took Best of Show, and at the 75th Phillips' Mill Annual Juried Art Exhibition, where Carolyn's Room received the Patrons Award for Painting. Dot Bunn is one of the many incredible artists featured at Howard Gallery of Fine Art.

Howard Gallery of Fine Art represents only original paintings, sculpture and glass by living regional artists. The gallery has eight rooms in their 3,000 square feet of space and private parking. It's become a destination for art collectors coming from New York, Washington, Maryland, New Jersey, and Philadelphia.

For more information, please contact Howard Cooperman, Howard Gallery of Fine Art, 77 W. Bridge Street, New Hope, PA 18938, 215.862.5272 or visit their website at www.howard-gallery.com.

###

