

Mid Summer Madness Weekend Takes New Hope, PA by Storm

New Hope's Mid Summer Madness weekend will have more events going on at one time than ever before. On Saturday & Sunday, August 12th & 13th, there will be a town-wide RED TAG SALE. On Saturday evening, August 12th New Hope will once again celebrate Second Saturday from 5:00pm to 9:00pm. New Hope also welcomes the return of the New Hope Auto Show that will run on both Saturday & Sunday. There will be something going on for everyone of every age.

On Saturday & Sunday, August 12th & 13th, New Hope will definitely be abuzz. Many of the businesses in town including a number of restaurants and bars will have a town-wide RED TAG SALE for the two days. All of the participating businesses will have specially made signs prominently displayed in their windows or store fronts. Imagine going into a restaurant and ordering a RED TAG special and then shopping next door for some RED TAG bargains. That is what you will find in New Hope on August 12th & 13th.

The RED TAG SALE is only the beginning of a fun filled weekend. Saturday, August 12th is also our Second Saturday event. Many of our art galleries will have exhibitions that evening and serve refreshments. As one strolls through the streets they may hear a guitar player or singers entertain our visitors. This event is not exclusive to galleries as many gift and antique shops will also be participating. The Second Saturday event runs from 5:00pm to 9:00pm throughout town, as well as our sister city across the Delaware, Lambertville, New Jersey.

To top off our Mid Summer Madness Weekend, we are fortunate to have the return of the New Hope Auto Show. The exhibition will take place on the grounds of the New Hope Solebury School and will run on both Saturday & Sunday, August 12th & 13th. Once you have been to the auto show, visited our shops and restaurants and have toured our fine art galleries, there is even more for our visitors to do and see. A trip to New Hope is not complete without visiting the James A. Michener Art Museum, catching a show at the Bucks County Playhouse, taking a ride on the Ivyland Railroad or just relaxing on our mule barge ride on the canal. So, save the dates, August 12th & 13th and come to visit New Hope, PA.
